

Special session “International perspective on the fight against corruption from organized civil society”

- Pending issues to consolidate and implement the NAS (National Anticorruption System) and the importance of citizen participation in its configuration.
- International perspective of citizen participation in the fight against corruption in Mexico.

Limited availability

Monday, September 18th, 2017, 18:00 – 20:00 hrs.

Club de Industriales, Salón Club de Industriales

Andrés Bello #29, Miguel Hidalgo, Polanco,

11550, Mexico City

$200.00 pesos, Socios ICC MÉXICO.

$300.00 pesos + IVA, no Socios.

Registry: 18:00 – 18:30 hrs.

Conference: 18:30 – 19:30 hrs.

Agenda

I. Presentation

Roberto Hernández García, President of the Commission on Anticorruption of ICC Mexico.

II. Message of ICC Mexico’s Chair

María Fernanda Garza Merodio, Chair of ICC Mexico.

III. Anticorruption panel

- Jacqueline Peschard, President of the Committee of Citizen Participation (CCP) of the NAS.
- María Elena Morera, President of “Causa en Común” and member of the Senate’s Selection Committee of the members of the CPC of the NAS.
- Colleen A. Conry, Partner at Ropes & Gray.
- Nicholas M. Berg, Partner at Ropes & Gray.
- Moderator: Diego Sierra Laris, Vice-president of the Commission on Anticorruption of ICC Mexico and Partner at Von Wobeser & Sierra.

Cocktail: 19:30 hrs.

RSVP Please confirm attendance with Hugo Pérez hperez@iccmex.org.mx or with Maricarmen Montoya mcmontoya@iccmex.org.mx

Phone: +52 55 5687 2207 / 2203